The Path of the fairy tale is one of the most beautiful and interesting trail of Valdinievole. The tour is a circle that start in Pescia, touch Collodi and rise the hill into the woodland. We will find out the typical Tuscan countryside with historical heritage (like Collodi and the Villa Garzoni) and will enter inside ancient villages. We will encounter many interesting species of bird and plants and we will see the higher wooden statue of Pinocchio of the world. It's not a difficult trail and the first part is with up and down on sweet hills, but the second part rise the slope and became a bit more hard to do. It's an interesting tour because it mixes historical and natural issues.

The trail is almost completely on dirty road, with gravel and clay (there could be mud). The trail needs hiking boots, personal water and to be in good physical shape.
